RE: Use of Datasets, networks and code posted on Sage Bionetworks

- The referenced data, tools, analysis and models are provided under the terms of a Creative Commons Attribution-ShareAlike 3.0 Unported License (CC-BY 3.0) with the particular considerations specified below. The Requester accepts and agrees to be bound by the terms of this license and by the additional considerations listed below.

Briefly, the CC-BY 3.0 license lets users remix, tweak, and build upon the work even for commercial reasons as long as they attribute the source in a manner specified by the authors and that they license their new creations under the identical terms. The complete License Legal Code terms are provided in the included CC-LICENSE file.

- All code (scripts and/or packages) is provided under the terms of an Apache License as specified in the AP-License file.
- The Requester agrees to cite as appropriate the Data Contributor as the source of the dataset, the Network Contributor as the source of the network and the Author of Code (scripts and/or packages) according to the acknowledgement paragraph provided in the README file.
- In order to ensure confidentiality of human study participants, the Requester agrees not to use the data and/or biological material received, alone or in conjunction with any other information, in any effort whatsoever to establish the individual identities or to make contact with any of the Study participants or their relatives.
- The Requester agrees to protect the information, to prevent misuse of data that could potentially harm, marginalize or discriminate individuals or population in insurance, employment or other uses.
- The Sage Data Repository is provided as-is with no warranties or guarantees whatsoever with the expectation that it will be used for research and training purposes.

I understand and accept the terms of use above
